The Hiring Committee

DSV – Global Transport and Logistics

Dhaka, Bangladesh

SUBJECT: Application for LCL Console Product & Business Development Position

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the opportunity to lead the development of DSV's LCL (Less-than-Container Load) console product. With over 5 years of experience in sales and business development, including my current role as Senior Executive of Business Development at Asia Rapid Logistics Ltd., I am well-prepared to drive volume growth and execute new business procurement for DSV.

Your job description highlights the need for a dynamic professional with strong business acumen to build competitiveness in the LCL segment while collaborating closely with sales and product teams. Throughout my career, I have consistently delivered on these critical metrics:

- Business Development & LCL Growth: In my current logistics role, I successfully drive annual sales targets, execute regional business plans, and build strong relationships with corporate clients. This aligns directly with your objective of identifying and securing new business opportunities within the LCL segment and expanding the DSV network.
- Sales Coordination & Product Design: I possess a proven track record of collaborating with cross-functional teams to identify market opportunities and optimize end-to-end fulfillment solutions. This hands-on experience supports your requirement for delivering seamless customer solutions and refining product designs tailored to market demands.
- Performance Monitoring & KPI Achievement: Backed by a Master of Social Science in Economics, I apply a highly analytical mindset to track key financial and sales metrics. I am highly experienced in managing pricing models and evaluating market insights to ensure strict budget and volume targets are consistently met or exceeded.
- Logistics & Freight Forwarding Expertise: My tenure in the logistics industry has equipped me with a deep understanding of supply chain operations, B2B corporate sales, and market analysis, ensuring I can immediately contribute to the scalability of DSV's LCL offerings.

I am deeply inspired by DSV's ambition to shape the future of logistics through innovation, digitalization, and world-class collaboration. I welcome the opportunity to discuss how my strong background in freight forwarding and business development can effectively drive the growth of your LCL product.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Md Nadimul Haque Akib
